JCI Barbados Green Roots Project Fashion Design Competition

2015 Rules and Regulations

The competition is being held under the following theme:

“The three new R’s – Regeneration, Resurgence & Rejuvenation”

- Regeneration - re-grow, being born again, given renewed life
- Resurgence - a revival
- Rejuvenation – making young and youthful again

The JCI Barbados Green Roots Project invites students from SJPP, BCC and citizens and residents of Barbados to submit entries for the Fashion Design Competition. The Green Roots Project is the 4th Annual initiative seeking to educate young Barbadians about their environment, history and to build an awareness of the need to make Barbados a “green society” thereby meeting one of the national strategic objectives of Barbados.

Fashion designs submitted to our competition will be judged based on the following elements of LOCALLY INSPIRED design expressions:

Fashion Design Marking:

1. Creativity and originality of the depicted theme.
2. Quality of design composition and overall incorporation of recyclable materials based on the theme.
3. Interpretation and the clarity of the theme to the viewer.
4. Overall impression of the design.
  - What is the visual impact of the design in general and as a whole?
  - Does the design stand on its own as a complete and outstanding piece of fashion?
