

Fun day for special children

ACG, Added 09 November 2015

These little ones enjoyed their ride on the carousel. (Picture by Christoff Griffith.)

MORE ARTICLES

Economy a major concern but no unified answer Read More

Facebook suspends 200 apps over data misuse investigation Read More

Windies series vs Bangladesh includes two T20s in Florida Read More

BDFSP clip Blackbirds' wings Read More

BNB sale water under the bridge Read More

Role for ex-bishop Read More

Feminist war movie captures zeitgeist at Cannes Read More

IT WAS ALL SMILES and laughter for the children who attended Junior Chamber International's (JCI) 17th annual project, Special Day For Special Children last Saturday.

Related articles

- Ellerton children get Payless treat...
- Special Day for Ercilla
- Courts donates to special needs...

The free event, held on the grounds of Ilaro Court, welcomed over 300 children with special needs, some from the Derrick Smith School and Vocational Centre.

Kerryann Ifill, President of the Senate and vice president of the Barbados Council for the Disabled, thanked the JCI committee for their continued efforts in working to normalise disabilities.

She said the fair meant a lot to the children who lived with disabilities and their families, as it provided them with a day to socialise and have a good time. (ACG)

Please read the full story in today's Daily Nation, or in the eNATION edition.

