

JCI Barbados to recognise “Ten Outstanding Young Persons” of 2015

Junior Chamber International Barbados (JCI Barbados) will be hosting the Ten Outstanding Young Persons (TOYP) of Barbados 2015. Outstanding persons will be awarded in ten categories for achievement in their relevant fields such as academics, culture, the environment or technological development, etc.

JCI TOYP has had the fortune of being able to recognise outstanding persons for the past three decades, and the time has come for the exceptional persons in Barbados to be recognized as well. Launched in the year 1983, the TOYP program has recognized the talents and achievements of many outstanding young individuals over the decades. “In 2015, JCI Barbados will provide the platform for persons to be recognised for their contribution to national development in several areas. This, we believe, will further ignite the flame to pursue their dreams with more zest and create positive change” said Khaleid Holder, President of JCI Barbados.

JCI Barbados is encouraging persons between ages 18-40 who have the passion to excel, and those who excelled with passion from all over the country to apply for this prestigious award and gain local & international recognition. “We are pleased to announce, that nominations are open for JCI TOYP 2015 Awards. We encourage persons not to be limited by the situations around them but rather, through innovative thinking, to create a better reality for themselves and for Barbados. In doing so, we seek to uplift the lives of young people and inspire them to break barriers and excel beyond their expectations.” said Khaleid Holder, President of JCI Barbados. “This is the second year that JCI Barbados is running this program, as in 2014 Ms. Toni Thorne, one of our nominees, was shortlisted in the top 20 of the TOYP Awards, the first Caribbean national to do so” Holder added.

The nominations for candidates, who wish to apply for the JCI Barbados TOYP 2015 awards, were opened on March 6, 2015. More information can be obtained from www.jcibarbados.com/ten-outstanding-young-persons-award.html.

Completed Nomination Forms should be sent to, Junior Chamber International, Barbados, via email at toyp@jcibarbados.com or via mail to P.O. Box 1175, Bridgetown, Barbados. Completed nomination must be received May 10, 2015.

The criteria for selection will be based on noteworthy achievements which have inspired others with a record of adherence to the principles embodied in the JCI Creed.
