

JCI World Congress Quebec Canada

JCI Barbados continues to represent the local chapter both regionally and internationally on the world stage at the JCI World Congress held in Quebec Canada from October 30th – November 4th, 2016.

JCI Barbados President Charlene Corbin accompanied by chapter members, board members and a JCI West Indies contingent, made an official visit to JCI World Congress in Quebec City. Québec with its modern city and unique and exciting history welcomed the West Indies delegation with open arms.

On their visit, they were able to highlight what the West Indies Region had to offer by taking part in numerous cultural activities with a recreation of Barbados and other West Indies destinations as well as taking part in an internationally represented debating competition in which the West Indies debaters placed second.

The major highlight of the visit culminated with the election of Mr. Kevin Hinds as JCI International Vice President 2017. As a Barbadian representative, Kevin's role as IVP will include but not limited to, be an advisor and consultant to a group of International Organizations. These duties include observation of International Organization administration with recommendations for improvement and some public relations work with International Organizations.

Our organization will continue to inculcate the values and benefits of volunteerism and dedication to helping our society, as JCI Barbados assists young people to take a leading role in ensuring poverty eradication and achieving sustainable youth development.
